Columbia COLLEGE CHICAGO

COMMENCEMENT 2003

This ceremony is dedicated to the memory of William Russo, Columbia's first full-time faculty member, founding chair of the Music Department, founder and conductor of the Chicago Jazz Ensemble, and composer and author of international acclaim.

We also dedicate this ceremony to the memory of Daryl Thomas, a Columbia senior who was to graduate today. Daryl was a valued student in the Television and Radio departments and a young man who battled many obstacles to passionately embrace the Columbia educational experience.

DISTINGUISHED HONORS

A Celebration of Artists in Human Service

Doctorates to be conferred at Commencement Exercises, June 1, 2003

Each year, Columbia College Chicago honors outstanding individuals in the arts, education, politics, and public information, people who have engaged their great talents in important human service and whose life work and example embody the College's ideals and spirit.

Lois Weisberg

Arts Manager & Advocate

Lois Weisberg has transformed Chicago into a cultural artistic mecca. As Commissioner of the Chicago Department of Cultural Affairs, Lois Weisberg serves as a member of the Mayor's cabinet and supervises a municipal department that is charged with making the arts accessible to all and promoting the city of Chicago to a worldwide audience through its many distinguished and diverse arts and cultural attractions.

Among her initiatives as Cultural Commissioner of the City of Chicago are launching the Chicago Cultural Center as the nation's first free municipal cultural center; creating Gallery 37, Chicago's pioneering arts education program; and developing the Chicago Sister Cities International Program into a municipal program with relationships with 23 cities in 22 countries. As head of the agency that operates the city's Office of Tourism, Weisberg has established Chicago as a national model in cultural tourism through programs that range from sending Chicago artists around the world as goodwill ambassadors of the city to presenting the historic "Cows on Parade" exhibition and other temporary public art exhibitions, which boost tourism and attract worldwide media coverage.

Lois Weisberg was appointed Commissioner of the Chicago Department of Cultural Affairs in 1989 by Mayor Richard M. Daley after serving as assistant to the Mayor for special projects. She previously served as Director of the Mayor's Office of Special Events, where her initiatives included Taste of Chicago, Chicago Blues Festival, Chicago Gospel Festival, citywide Neighborhood Festivals, and the Chicago Holiday Sharing It Program.

Weisberg has served as Director of Public Affairs for the Rehabilitation Institute of Chicago, Director of Development for the BPI (Business and Professional People of the Public Interest), a public interest law firm, and Executive Director of the Chicago Council of Lawyers.

She was the founder and member of the board of Friends of the Parks, a citizens' parks advocacy organization. As the founder and chair of South Shore Recreation, a bi-state citizens' group, she played a leading role in saving passenger service on the Chicago, South Bend and South Shore Railroad.

Lois Weisberg, a widow, has four children and seven grandchildren.

For your dedication to the arts, we are proud to bestow upon you the honorary degree of Doctor of Arts, Honoris Causa.

Presented by Madeline Murphy Rabb, Board of Trustees, Columbia College Chicago.

Tony Kushner

Celebrated Playwright

Tony Kushner explodes the facade of the American Dream and searches for alternatives and new voices as a compelling new force in American Theater. Tony Kushner's plays include A Bright Room Called Day, Hydriotaphia, Angels in America, Parts One and Two, Slavs!, and most recently, Homebody/Kabul, a new version, directed by Frank Galati, which will open at Steppenwolf Theater and the Mark Taper Forum in the summer and fall of 2003. His adaptations include Corneille's The Illusion, Ansky's The Dybbuk, Brecht's The Good Person of Sezuwan, and Goethe's Stella. A collection of his essays, Thinking About The Longstanding Problems of Virtue and Happiness, was published in 1997 by TCG. A new volume of essays, Save

Your Democratic Citizen Soul!, will be published in 2003 by The New Press. Caroline, or Change, a musical he is writing with composer Jeanine Tesori, and directed by George C. Wolfe, will open in the fall of 2003 at The New York Shakespeare Festival. Mr. Kushner is collaborating with Maurice Sendak on an American version of the children's opera, Brundibar, to premier in the spring of 2003 at Chicago Opera Theater; his text for a picture book based on the opera, illustrated by Sendak, will be published by Hyperion; in addition, he has written a survey of Sendak's recent illustrations and stage designs, which will be published this October by Abrams Books. In the fall of 2003, HBO will present a 6-hour film version of Angels in America, directed by Mike Nichols. Homebody/Kabul is being adapted for film by Mira Nair. Mr. Kushner's work has been produced at theaters around the United States and in over thirty countries around the world. He is the recipient of numerous awards, including, for Angels in America, the Pulitzer Prize for Drama, two Tony Awards for Best Play, two Drama Desk Awards, and London's Evening Standard Award; two Obie Awards for best play for Slavs! and Homebody/Kabul, and two Dramatists' Guild Hull-Warriner awards for Angels and Homebody/Kabul. In addition, he is the recipient of a Whiting Foundation Writer's Award, an Arts Award from the American Academy of Arts and Letters, a Cultural Achievement Award from the National Foundation for Jewish Culture, the PEN/Laura Pels Award for a Mid-Career Playwright, a Spirit of Justice Award from the Gay and Lesbian Advocates and Defenders, and the Princess Grace Statuette, among other honors. For your tremendous impact in the field of literature, we are proud to bestow upon you the honorary degree of Doctor of Letters, Honoris Causa.

Presented by Fred Fine, Office of Institutional Advancement, Columbia College Chicago.

Russell Simmons

Music & Art Advocate

Russell Simmons is a master visionary who has long shaped the cutting edge of hip-hop – America's most compelling cultural explosion of the latter 20th century. His vision stems from his early realization of two key points: first, hip-hop's appeal could cut across geographic, race and class boundaries; second, hip-hop would evolve from a musical form into a lifestyle expression, a culture unto itself.

Over the course of the last twenty years, Russell has used these realizations to bring hip-hop to every facet of media and pop culture: in music with the immensely successful Def Jam Recordings; in film with Simmons Lathan Media Group; in television with HBO's "The Def Comedy Jam" and "Russell Simmons Presents Def Poetry"; on Broadway with the critically-acclaimed stage production "Russell Simmons Def Poetry Jam on Broadway"; in the fashion industry with the red-hot Phat Farm and Baby Phat clothing lines; in magazine publishing with "OneWorld" Magazine; in the financial services industry with the RushCard; and in the community with Rush Philanthropic Arts Foundation and the Hip Hop Summit Action Network.

45-year-old Russell Simmons is a native New Yorker who attended City College of New York. His interests extend far beyond the business world, and he spends a great deal of his time and considerable energy working for social, political, and philanthropic causes, pushing hip-hop on to new plateaus of power and relevance. In 1995 he, along with his brothers Danny and Joseph Simmons (Rev. Run of Run DMC), founded Rush Philanthropic Arts Foundation. The organization is dedicated to providing disadvantaged urban youth with significant exposure and access to the arts, as well as offering exhibition opportunities to underrepresented artists and artists of color. Following the historic Hip Hop Summit Russell organized in June 2001, he founded the Hip Hop Summit Action Network (HSAN) to harness the cultural relevance of hip-hop music as a catalyst for education advocacy and other societal concerns fundamental to the well-being of at-risk youth throughout the United States.

Russell and his ventures are driven by a personal and corporate belief that hip-hop is an enormously influential agent for social change which must be responsibly and proactively utilized to fight the war on poverty and injustice.

For your tremendous impact in the field of music, arts management and arts advocacy, we are proud to bestow upon you the honorary degree of Doctor of Arts, Honoris Causa.

Presented by Dr. Warrick Carter, President, Columbia College Chicago.

Why should we buy postage stamps when we can make our own?

It's true. You're broke but you're good with your colored pencils.
You'll spend the rest of your life making elaborate counterfeit bills, but never passing them. Your student loans will loom over you forever.
Oh, what am I saying, you'll probably just end up in an office building somewhere and they'll have one of those machines that stamps the envelopes, and you can go on, infinitely stamping envelopes. So really, what would be the point of spending so much time drawing them on?
Well, maybe you'll make decorative envelopes for businessmen,
and they will question the purpose of beauty in their lives, and you'll be made famous for your skill with lace, your attention to detail. There is no need, they will say, for the march of progress to leave such ugly boot prints across the uncivilized prairies.
I could be wrong. Maybe you'll sit in a classroom with your yarn and needles and knit beautiful sweaters and the children will say, "That Ms. Jane, she sure knits beautiful sweaters." And the administration will clap themselves on the back and say, "That Ms. Jane, what an asset, have you seen how smart the rugby team looks these days?"
You will sit in a classroom knitting beautiful sweaters until the world runs out of yarn or until your soul vacates your body or until someone somewhere starts a new trend that calls for only the most hideous sweaters or worse, none at all. Will the onset of tank tops be enough to finally get you out of the classroom? How will the years of endless knitting have prepared you for the dirtiness of the world? All those unshaven armpits buzzing about uncovered.
But maybe you never really liked knitting sweaters anyhow, maybe you really just liked being around them, discoursing upon the subtle differences between mohairs, acrylics, and wools, how this one has a nap, but that one releases moisture and so on.
Maybe you'll start a museum to the sweater. And it will occur to you then, as you're curating some spring afternoon, that all envelopes come decorated, that all money is counterfeit, and that your student loans are just ghosts in the back hallways and janitor's closets of your museum. The light will strike you funny through the skylight, and you'll know that your museum is just a classroom inside of an endless set of classrooms, and that so long as there are sweaters, nobody has to be naked.
